COMMUNICATIONS WITH PARENTS

The Board of Trustees recognizes the fact that parents and guardians play an integral part in the success or failure of the school and teachers to educate the students. The Board, therefore, emphasizes the need, on the part of the staff, to maintain strong lines of communication with the parents and guardians of each child. Communication lines are developed in many ways - telephone calls, notes, formal notices, conferences - and the staff should attempt to use all of them in its quest to maintain a strong home-school relationship.
